

A Culture of CommUnity
THE 2017 FORT WORTH BOOKFEST
Ring a Bell for Literacy!®

Fort Worth Bookfest invites Publishing companies to participate in our 2nd Annual event, October 20, 2018, on the campus of TCC | Trinity River in the heart of downtown Fort Worth. The BookFest is an excellent opportunity to highlight your authors and sell books. We anticipate our audience to come mainly from the DFW Metroplex. We are also marketing the event throughout the entire southwest region including NM, OK, AR, LA, and TX.

The Bookfest is a cross-cultural, community-driven, multi-genre literary event that will provide a platform for raising awareness of the transformative power of literacy in our community and throughout our marketing area. Presented under the banner Fort Worth — A Culture of CommUnity, our theme this year is Embracing our Differences and Celebrating our Diversity.

Fort Worth BookFest is a 501 (c) 3 organization under The Africana Literature Archives LLC, a New York State non-profit organization registered in Texas. Max Rodriguez, founder of the Harlem Book Fair – celebrating its 20th-year run July 2018, and publisher of QBR – The Black Book Review is a Co-Founder of Fort Worth BookFest.

For the Exhibitor Application (to be completed by all participants) and details on Author participation as a panelist, a panel moderator, a speaker, or opportunities to read to and dialogue with an audience about their book, please go to www.fortworthbookfest.com.

If, after careful review of all materials found on our Website you do not find the answers you seek, please forward your questions to us fwbookfest2017@gmail.com. We promise to respond quickly!

We look forward to meeting you in October!
